NOTICE OF NILLUMBIK U3A INC ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Nillumbik U3A Inc. will be holding the 2015
Annual General Meeting at:
1.30pm sharp to 3.30pm on Wed 15th April 2015
at
Eltham Community and Reception Centre
801 Main Road, Eltham VIC 3095
(Melway MAP 21, J6.)

Committee Positions

All committee positions are open to any member to be nominated. If you are interested in serving your U3A in any capacity please feel free to discuss the various committee roles with the relevant current Committee Member and put your name forward if you wish to stand for office.

Please advise the Hon. Secretary by 8th April 2015 of your intention to stand for election as an officer or member of the Committee.

The duties of the elected committee officers and committee members are available on the internet site at <http://www.nillumbiku3a.org.au>
The duties are also posted on the notice board at our Office.

All members are strongly encouraged to attend this very important meeting.

Nominations

1. An eligible member of the Association may—
 - (a) nominate himself or herself; or
 - (b) with the member's consent, be nominated by another member.

We request that nominations be made in writing to the Hon. Secretary 7 days before the meeting.

2. If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and further nominations shall be received at the annual general meeting.
3. If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.
4. If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled a ballot shall be held

President's Report

Welcome to all the 110 new members who join us for the first term in 2015. I trust that your membership will bring great learning opportunities as well as meeting and enjoying the company of new friends.

Welcome back also to the many returning members and especially to those founding members who have been part of Nillumbik U3A since courses commenced at Hurstbridge back in February 2009.

Much has been achieved in the six years of operation yet there is much more that could be done to reach out to the significant number of people of retirement age in our Community and provide them the opportunity to meet new friends and enjoy the benefits of keeping mind and body healthy in retirement. This last year we have publicised our U3A by participating in a number of Community events including those in Diamond Creek, Panton Hill and Eltham. We have commenced Open Forums to which members and the public at large are invited and we continue to run these in 2015. We conducted a very successful information booth at the Library in Eltham during Seniors' Week. All of these activities have helped to deliver the message of U3A— Live, Learn, Enjoy to a wider audience and our membership reflects that. And yet the best promotion remains by word of mouth from our current members.

Our Annual General Meeting will be held in April between course terms. The notice is on the front page of this Newsletter. I do hope many of you will be able to attend. The election of members to committee will take place at this meeting.

The Nillumbik U3A Committee of Management is open for all members to participate in and help set the direction of our U3A. I encourage everyone to consider what they might be able to offer to help guide the largest volunteer organisation in the community over the next few years. We are always in need of new ideas and new fresh talent on the committee. In addition to the formal officer bearer roles there are tasks and projects to be undertaken that will ensure our relevance to the community through liaison with local, state and federal government, seeking out and engaging people to conduct classes and activities, organising events and excursions... the list is long and we are only scraping the surface of what we could do.

You can self nominate for a place on the Committee or have another member nominate you. The nomination should be addressed to our Honorary Secretary, Cathy Guinness. Drop into the office and advise the staff of your intention or send a letter or email to u3a.nillumbik@gmail.com

This will be my last year as President and I thank you all for allowing me the privilege of leading the association for these last two and half years.

Stuart Winstanley

TO ALL MEMBERS OF U3A NILLUMBIK

 - (c) to elect the members of the Committee
 - (d) to confirm the amount of the annual subscription
- Guest Speaker : Jon Faine, ABC 774 Melbourne, Host of Mornings and The Conversation Hour
- Meeting Closed
- Afternoon Tea

Jon Faine To Deliver Key Note Address

ABC Radio personality Jon Faine will deliver a key note address at our AGM on Wednesday April 15. A former lawyer, Jon entered radio in 1989 but is best known as the presenter of the Morning program on 774 ABC Melbourne, a job he began in 1997. Each weekday morning from 8.30 a.m, be it politics, finance, health, law, arts or sport, Jon addresses the issues affecting Melbourne with energy and vigour.

We are fortunate that he has agreed to be our speaker not least because his mum and dad are U3A members and their experience has given him a soft spot for the organisation.

Theatre Group gets off to a great start!

Nillumbik U3A Theatre Group had its first outing to the Heidelberg Theatre in Rosanna. The play was 'When Dad Married Fury' by David Williamson. The group all enjoyed the play and thought it was a great beginning to a new activity. Thanks go to Laraine Hussey for proposing this new opportunity for our members. Laraine has another play in mind and will be in touch with members who have their name on the class list. If you would like to join in, then email the office or ring during office hours. Tickets must be paid for in advance.

Meet a Volunteer

Lyn Hatherly - 'If a job needs doing, give it to a busy person'.

The life source of any U3A is the richness and diversity of the courses it offers and the enthusiasm of the tutors offering them. When the group planning an Eltham U3A and the existing Nillumbik U3A joined forces, Lyn was elected onto the new Committee. Her area of responsibility on that committee was Course Coordinator; a position she still holds.

From the outset Lyn has also thrown herself into tutoring. Her expertise and passion for the written word and the Classics are obvious in the courses she has offered continually from Term 4 2012. Beginning with Creative writing she soon returned to her love of the Classics and since 2013 has conducted many courses in this discipline. A few examples of her courses are; The Peace plays of Aristophanes, The Iliad of Homer, and The Odyssey by Homer.

Lyn was born in Thornbury and lived there until she was 18. Primary school was spent at Wales St and Penders Grove. Years 7-11 were spent at Preston Girls where on completion of her Leaving Certificate she was offered a teaching bursary. Being very young she declined the offer and went to work at AMP.

Lyn married in 1963 and the years 1964- 1970 saw Lyn living in Croydon, and having four children, 2 girls and 2 boys.

However the lure of further study beckoned and in the early 1980's Lyn went back to evening school to complete Year 12. She began an Arts degree in 1984 at Monash, was offered honours and decided on English and Classics which she completed in 1987. She was awarded a postgraduate research award and began a Master's degree which was converted to a PHD in Classics which was completed in 1994. In 1996 a book based on Lyn's PHD studies, 'Sappho's Sweetbitter Songs', was published by Routledge. Her second collection of poetry was also published the same year.

After 5 years lecturing at James Cook University in Cairns the heat and humidity of the far north got too much and Lyn and her new husband Chris moved to Brisbane. In late 2002 they moved back to Melbourne when Lyn's father became very ill. They moved to John St. in 2007 where they were owner building a house that they finished in 2009.

Lyn now has 5 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. Her passions continue to be writing, particularly poetry, education and philosophy. Her other passion is her concern about sustainability and the environment. Her home was opened for Sustainable House Day in 2012 and is solar powered, independent for water and extremely efficient. She is also a member of the Victorian Greens and stood as a candidate for the council elections in 2012.

Jazz Highlights Keep Happening

The ABC of the Golden Years of Melbourne Jazz keeps throwing up surprises. Don Anderson OAM and his wife Margaret were surprise and welcome visitors from the Museum of Australian Jazz. They are specialist archivists at the Museum responsible for material related to the Australian Jazz Convention. Don is one of the few survivors who attended the first Convention in 1946 and to get his memories of the event, which led to an internationally unique explosion of jazz in Melbourne, was a rare privilege for our course members.

Co-Tutor John Crichton sprang another surprise the following week. He has been presenting a jazz program on Radio 965 Inner FM for over 20 years during which time he has reviewed many hundreds of records. Outstanding young Melbourne band Shirazz had just mailed him a pre-release copy of their third CD and our course became the first group to hear a track from it. VERY HOT! Mal Harrop

Wadambuk

First impressions of "Wadambuk" St Andrews new Community Centre are positive. Set in green surrounds off the main road the building sits beautifully and appropriately in its environment. Architect, Gregory Burgess, is responsible for the design. The new building is attached to an old residence, built in 1858, which housed the school principal.

The interior is attractive and full of light. Coffee facilities are available and public areas will eventually incorporate gallery space. Rooms are available for hire and various classes/activities are now operating which include a Naturopath and Nutritionist, Zumba Gold, St Andrews Garden Co-Op, Pilates and Yoga and also a French Group. More are planned for the future. Anyone in the local community and surrounds is invited to become a member and contribute to this centre. The aims and objectives of the Centre are social connection, arts and culture, health and wellbeing, sustainability and resilience.

The Centre has commenced operations and the official opening will be on Sunday 22nd March.

Nillumbik Green Wedge Guidebook

Help required to write a Nillumbik Green Wedge guidebook.

Dr Geoff Mosely would like to see a guide book written on The Nillumbik Green Wedge that could be of great interest for locals and visitors alike. It could well be the pioneer of a whole series of guidebooks on Melbourne's twelve green wedges

He has discussed his concept with Green Wedge Management Plan Advisory Committee and is willing to act as editor. As there is considerable knowledge and writing talent among Nillumbik U3A members Geoff is keen to hear from you.

If you are interested and would like to know more, such as proposed chapter headings, please be in touch with Geoff on 9718 2998.

Yoga and its benefits

On Tuesdays at 11.00 in the Nankervis Room at the Hurstbridge Hub around twenty U3A members are fortunate to be attending a Yoga class which is conducted by Brenda Fisher-Stamp. Brenda has offered these thoughts for our newsletter:

Gita style Hatha Yoga is for EVERYbody. Using age-old techniques Gita style Yoga helps participants to regenerate and revitalize on a physical, emotional, mental and even spiritual level.

Breathing, stretching, moving and balancing your way to a HAPPIER, HEALTHIER YOU!

Fancy a Movie?

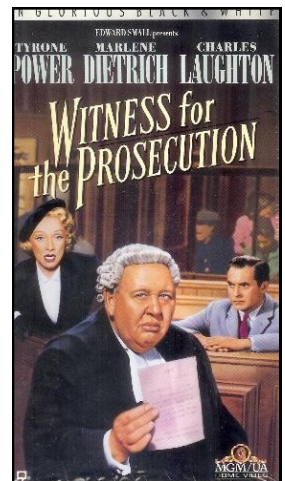

MONTHLY MOVIES

These are held at the Old Eltham Courthouse on the 2nd Friday of each term month at 7pm. All welcome for a night of filmic fun. You are invited to attend any time and bring a friend.

Our Movie premiere "Singing' in the Rain" on the 13th of February was a tumultuous success, as was the successful production of the 1956 "High Society" on the 13th of March.

The next movie will be a thriller—"Witness for the Prosecution". It will be shown on 8th May at OEC at 7pm.

If you have any queries please phone Judy on (94382336) .
(A gold coin donation would be gratefully accepted.)

FRENCH MONTHLY MOVIES

As some of our regular French movie goers remember, Bill showed us a different (but very funny) movie titled "Tais-toi" instead of "Les Fugitifs".

Never fear, Les Fugitifs will be screened on the 23rd of March instead, and ... be prepared to laugh again!

363And Still Counting —

Welcome to all our new members!

Our membership has reached 363 with over 110 new members joining since Christmas. This creates continuing pressure to find affordable, accessible and increasingly large premises particularly convenient to Eltham town.

Our membership survey by postcode indicates that almost half our membership is from Eltham. Hopefully there are positive signs ahead and we particularly thank the Federal, State and local public servants who have put their minds to helping to develop solutions.

From The Editor: Thanks to all the members who have helped with the publication and distribution of this newsletter. Special thanks to Judy Vizzard who has agreed to assist with her desktop skills. I think we can look forward to some interesting changes to our newsletter with Judy's input. Articles are welcome for the next newsletter and need to be submitted to: annekane1@internode.on.net.au by Friday 5th June. Anne Kane

A Blog from the Creative Writing Class

Len Vardy has created a blog which he is kindly sharing with our membership. Here is the text on the opening page of his blog:

“I hope this blog will become a journal of my passage through a creative writing course – documenting my thoughts and ideas, being amazed at the thoughts and ideas of others, and presenting some of my writing attempts.”

<http://www.argentnoirwriting.wordpress.com>

Thanks very much Len for sharing your thoughts and ideas. Perhaps we are beginning a new and poignant way to share our experiences and thoughts in Nillumbik U3A.

MONTHLY FORUMS

Monthly Forums are held at the Eltham Library from 1.30 to 3.15pm and all are welcome to attend. Please feel free to bring a friend or two with you. During the afternoon light refreshments will be served and a $2.00 donation would be appreciated.

March 25th at 1:30pm

Would you like to find out how to improve your memory?

Our guest speaker is Charles Gauci , recently returned from a season in Las Vegas. He is a full time hypnotist, magician and mentalist with a prodigious memory capacity and is generously going to share some tips on memory retention with us. Come along and be astounded!!

April 29th at 1:30pm

Our guest speaker is Mel Higgins who will present a popular senior's package put together by RACV called Lifestyle – Healthy Ageing and Staying Connected, which includes keeping active, ageing and getting around, alternative transport, internet use & how to detect and avoid scams which target our senior community.

May 27th at 1:30pm

Last year an anthology called 'Nillumbik Tales - Voices of our Elders' was published. It celebrated the cultural diversity and history of the Nillumbik community. We are hoping to hear some of our own U3A contributors share their stories with us. Keep an eye out for further details!

June 24th at 1:30pm

Our June speaker will be Jill Sanguinetti who will be talking about her recently published book School Days of a Methodist Lady. In 1958 she arrived from the country to begin boarding at MLC. This coming of age memoir is a deeply personal account of teenage struggles with parental and sibling relationships, and with MLC's discipline, study demands, tough living conditions and rigorous religious education – all described with honesty, hilarity and sharp critical insight. Jill has gone on to be a teacher, both secondary and tertiary and branched into educational research in adult education policy and women's education. An entertaining and elucidating afternoon to come!

From the Office

IMPORTANT NEWS

OFFICE HOURS – MONDAY and THURSDAY 10-12.

For after hours contact please email rather than leave a phone message.

- As many of our classes are full and have waiting lists members are advised that apologies for absences must be offered to the tutor or class representative. Three absences without apology will mean you are no longer enrolled in the class. Please do not phone or email the office to report absences.
- REMINDER – The U3A Office can only accept cash or cheque as payment; payments can be paid online by bank transfer – details on the website.
- If anyone makes a coffee at the Eltham Courthouse classes, please don't forget to contribute a small donation to cover the cost of tea, coffee etc. (tutors exempt).
- It is compulsory to wear U3A Nillumbik nametags for two reasons:
 1. On the back is the emergency information for use in case of, for example, sudden illness such as heart attack etc. This has occurred in the past and is a vital piece of information.
 2. Wearing your name is very helpful for the tutor and for other class members as it assists communication so effectively.

Brenda's Art Class

“Remember, two glass jars, one for cleaning your brush and one for diluting your paint,” tutor Brenda's English accented voice rings out. She follows up with reminders about the fast drying properties of acrylics, brush selection and the importance of working “from back to front.” These are lessons that we, her students, don't always ‘get’ immediately although judging by our results, we are all learning.

Acrylic paints, watercolours, pastels and pencils are our mediums and paper, canvases, brushes, masking tape, rags and rubbers are our tools. Every Thursday afternoon we meet at Eltham High School to explore the many ways we can use our mediums and tools to create paintings and drawings. Trees, clouds, water, fruit and flowers have been the subjects for our first lessons; it's surprising to see how different our results can be! Soon we will be let loose on our own projects, an exciting prospect.

Last week several participants discussed the value of the classes. They agreed that by painting or drawing they were able to “switch off,” to distance themselves from everyday concerns and to relax into a totally absorbing hour and a half of creativity. I agree, recognising where the light shines on an apple is an absorbing occupation and recreating what you have observed is an intriguing challenge.

Our tasks are made all the more pleasant by Brenda's cheerful, enthusiastic and knowledgeable assistance. It's fun to be a participant in her sessions.

Exciting New Courses commencing Next Term!

Maybe it's time to tackle something new this autumn? Have a look at the list of fascinating subjects which our members are offering next term and... be tempted! You can enrol by:

- emailing the office at u3a.nillumbik@gmail.com
- phoning 0468 300 764 during office hours 10.00am to noon, Monday to Thursday.

Remember:

- Enrolment priority will be given to volunteers.
- If a course is full members go on a waiting list.
- Please contact your tutor if you're to be absent from a session.
- Once members are absent for three times without an apology to the tutor they will be taken off the class list and their place offered to the next person waiting.

Value Investing for Uncertain Times

Facilitator: Lindsay Byrnes

This course begins with the philosophy that ultimately the price of a security will be determined by its value.

It analyses the effectiveness of investor tools, support services, methodologies and hedging strategies which facilitate determining value in today's volatile market. This course will appeal to direct investors in the stock market or other asset classes and for those managing, or contemplating managing, their own super fund or investment portfolio.

Topics include the market history, value listed entities, evaluating research sources, analysing full service, on-line brokerage, how to use derivatives for both portfolio protection and in gaining income, the importance of macro events and how much you can 'do it yourself.'

Lindsay has worked as a company secretary, divisional financial executive and in sales and marketing. He is a fellow of CPA Australia and an Associate member of the Governance Institute of Australia (previously 'Chartered Secretaries Australia').

His interests include corporate social responsibility, ethics and research into more sustainable business practices.

Villainous Vikings or Just 'Assertive Blokes?'

Facilitator: Jane Davies

A case of just bad press?

The major problem in Viking studies is the bias towards historical accounts - early chronicles that came from church centres and official reports to kings or regional authorities. Recent archaeological have studies begun to flesh out and sometimes contradict or replace historical records. These findings are giving us a totally different view of the Vikings...

Find out more in this fascinating study.

Wordpress and Building Your Own Website

Facilitator: Guy Palmer

Would you like to have your own website? A website that you can make look like you want it to look and where you can easily add whatever content you want whenever you want to add it? A website which starts small but can become bigger and more sophisticated over time?

If your answer is "yes" then you should be using Wordpress.

In this course, we will build a Wordpress website. You'll need to bring your laptop (or a big tablet) to each class and, clearly, you will need to be reasonably serious about learning how to build and develop a website. We'll start with the basics, then, over time, move onto more sophisticated features.

To show what Wordpress is capable of have a look at one of Guy's sites: www.localfoodconnect.org.au.
